Announcements

President Maureen Patterson called on Fred Taylor to lead our blessing and pledge.

President Maureen reported that the MMFF committee meeting is this Tuesday night (tonight) @ 6pm 8/9/10, and Club Board meeting occurred on Monday 8/8/2016.

Patricia Green invited members to participate in the YMCA Bright Beginnings shopping and backpack programs. Shopping at the Westchester Target will take place on August 24 and 25 at 5:30PM. A signup sheet was passed around. Lists are available for those that would like to fill and donate backpacks to the program.

Richard McCullough reminded members that club dues are now due. Richard thanks the following for getting their dues in today: Chuck Catlett, Andy Foldenauer, Robert Maddux, Joe Owen, Bob Stallworth & Chris Winslow. Nearly 3/4ths of our members have now paid their 2016-17 annual dues. Dues may be paid in person or mailed to Midlothian Rotary Club, PO Box 306, Midlothian 23113.

District Governor Diane Hageman will be at our meeting on August 30. Committee chairpersons should wear their Rotary scarves or ties.

Club Care & Concern

Dave Larmore reported that Mark Steil's wife, Bertie, was having complications with her vision following her recent stroke. Keep Mark and Bertie in your thoughts and prayers.

Happy Dollars

Chris Winslow was happy to have been selected to the 2016 class of Leadership Metro Richmond.

Will Shewmake was happy that one of the students he mentors had attended Camp Alkulana (a charity recipient). He was also happy to have Rev. Matt Bean from Redeemer Lutheran church as his guest today.

Wayne Woodcock was also happy to have Matt Bean here today as well as for being home from vacation.

Bill Greg was happy about David Helfrich's outstanding travel agent abilities. Bill explained that David was single handedly able to line up flights for Bill's daughter to get to Europe, avoid getting stuck in the airport and beat Delta's computer failure.

David Helfrich was happy the advertising.

Allen Worley was happy to have had his granddaughter spend a week at his house and that he has a new grandson on the way.

Chandler Williams was happy to have just spent a week at Hilton Heads with his grandkids and in-laws.

Jack Allison, Bon Air Rotarian was happy to be at the meeting in his plaid shorts. He also urged President Maureen to fine Rusty Miller for his shorts, as Rusty had done to Jack, during Rusty's presidency.

Randy Ellington was happy about becoming a granddad for the sixth grandchild under four years old.

Pete Stith was happy that his sister had just held a party that raised over $30,000.00 for Virginia State University.

Sam Lee (Brandermill Rotarian) was happy to see everyone.

Andy Foldenauer was happy to have taken his parents, in-laws and kids hiking at Crabtree Falls. He was very happy that they got back to the car before dark.

Pete Stith was happy that as a USMC veteran he will neither hike nor camp ever again.

President Maureen was happy that Chuck Catlett and Chris Seward attended the membership seminar in Williamsburg with her last weekend.

Richard McCullough was happy that he will be 65 years old on tomorrow.

Program - Club Assembly

Robley Bates welcomed Patricia Green into the club. Patricia is the executive director of the Midlothian Family YMCA. She was formerly a member of the Short Pump Rotary Club. Patricia looks forward to taking an active role in our club activities.

Chandler Williams presented the prize giveaway trips that will be provided to 5 sponsors of the MMFF and 2 club members with most sponsorship money. Trips include 5 great locations throughout Mexico Riviera.

This travel incentive program is available to sponsors that participate in the food festival through Midlothian Rotarians. Chandler and Robbin Kolbe are available to explain the details of the program to potential sponsors on behalf of our club members. Mike Hall announced that he had obtained two sponsors using the benefits of the travel program.

One of our new members, Sage Robertson, gave his classification talk. Sage is a native of Lynchburg, but spent a lot of time at both sets of grandparents homes in Richmond. He is a JMU graduate and is employed at Primerica

Four Way Test

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
