Announcements

President Maureen Patterson called on Wayne Woodcock to open the meeting with our blessing and pledge.

Maureen was glad to be back from vacation. In accordance with a district request for assistance, a collection was taken for Louisiana flood victims. Treasurer Richard McCullough announced that the collection today totaled almost $500.00. Maureen plans on presenting checks (our club check for cash contributed, plus individual checks from members) to the District Governor at next the meeting. Absent members wishing to donate should bring their checks payable to Rotary District 7600 DAF to the meeting next week.

The Midlothian YMCA Bright Beginnings shopping will be held this Wednesday and Thursday, 5:30PM at the Westchester Target. Members have been invited to help with the shopping.

Bob Roop encouraged the club to push MMFF ticket sales. This underwrites the festival costs. Everette Darby is now distributing Food Festival tickets. Get your tickets from Everette and return receipts to him.

Chandler Williams pitched the sponsorship rewards program for the MMFF prize giveaway trips that will be provided to 5 sponsors of the MMFF and 2 club members with most sponsorship money. Trips include 5 great locations throughout Mexico Riviera. Chandler and Robbin Kolbe are available to assist members in selling this benefit.

Bill Stinson announced that the Richmond Symphony is playing September 17th, in Chester, to support funding of the Chesterfield performing Arts Facility. Bill is willing to provide support if shared 4 ways for a total of $1000 ($250 ea.). He needs others to contribute.

Dave Saunders encouraged members to get their Facebook friends to like the MMFF Facebook page.

Madelaine Spangler announced a fund raising gathering for Chris Winslow, at The Flying Pig, located at the Village at Waterford, 13560 Waterford Dr. Club members are invited to attend. Invitations were placed on tables this morning or you may contact Madelaine for more information.

Richard McCullough reminded members that Rotary club dues are past due. Richard thanks the following for getting their dues in today: Everette Darby, Nancy

Dave Saunders is happy to be taking his daughter to start at JMU, on Wednesday.

Program

Maureen gave a brief update of the activity regarding starting a Rotaract Club at ECPI-Midlothian. She and Fred Taylor are set to meet today with Jeremy Johnson, Director of Career Services at ECPI. Maureen then introduced Alex Ritche, the district Rotaract representative, who spoke to the club about our focus on starting a Rotaract Club. Goals for the college students include:

- Maintain a relationship with Rotary
- Have Rotaract Club member as non-voting Midlothian Board member
- Rotarians attend some of their meetings
- Assist with service projects

Dave Saunders then introduced our speaker, Eddie Swink of FORE Children, Inc. This Midlothian based organization has the objective of providing a setting where children can learn the fundamentals of golf, music, art, and culinary & nutritional skills. FORE's camp program at Independence Golf Club has impacted over 16,000 children with the mission of getting everyday kids to play golf and live heart healthy lifestyles.

Eddie told us of how the project exists because of the land donations of the late Buddy Sowers and efforts by the late Harry Easterly that obtained a gratis course design by Tom Fazio.

A success story was told about a 15 year old troubled girl sent to the camp by a judge in lieu of a detention facility. She was successful with golf which turned her life around and went on to obtain a golf scholarship to take her through college where she obtained a degree in Civil Engineering.
